

CARTER GETS ROLLING

EXCERPT:

FOR CIA OPERATIONS

JIM PICKERELL

GEORGE BUSH

The President-elect began immersing himself in the intricacies of international affairs with a conference with Dean Rusk, a fellow Georgian who served as Secretary of State in the Kennedy and Johnson Administrations. Director George Bush of the Central Intelligence Agency also visited Carter to keep him informed on developments abroad.